Description

Large decorative vase in the shape of an antique amphora, in polychrome and gilded wood, geometric rolling handles, decorated with applied palmettes, mounted on a square base with claw feet, from the late 18th century Directoire period. This vase is in good general condition. It is very decorative due to its size. A note: cracks on a handle (has been restored, posterior screws), some accidents and lack of polychromy on the vase and gilding on the foot, wear of time, look at the photos.
