Description

PITCHER with pewter shoulder, quarter-round foot and goblet and tasselled thumb.
Gauging mark affixed four times: large lily. (Let us remember in passing that these pitchers were the wine measures of the Ancien Régime. The capacity of those used in inns, drinking establishments, etc., had to be checked periodically by the royal or ecclesiastical power to ensure "good measure" to the consumer, but in fact, this regulation was little applied and the pitchers which carry gauging punches are very rare)

Height: 20.9 cm.
