Kork wool is the softest and silkiest wool taken from the first shearing of lambs, mainly under the neck and belly.
This carpet is a beautiful decorative and comfortable piece, the decor is abundant and beautifully designed, and the kork wool is of high quality.
The Sarough carpet, or Sarouk, the Ecbatana of Antiquity, is knotted in a few villages near Sarouk in the agricultural region of Arak.
European buying houses have had agencies there since the middle of the 19th century. Most of these rugs are nicknamed hamadan by traders, especially the runners knotted in this region.
These carpets have distinct identities, our model is of the Sarouk Mir type knotted in the small town of this name but marketed in Hamadan.
These rugs remain very popular in the United States, where decorators appreciate the heavy and important luxurious pieces of wool.
