Rousseau et Leveillé réunies". He created the models and had them made, then engraved, according to very precise instructions. This work earned him a gold medal. His crackled vases engraved on three layers of glass are appreciated. Renamed "E. Leveillé" after Rousseau's death in 1890, the store was transferred in 1899 to 140 Faubourg Saint-Honoré in Paris. In 1902, he joined forces with the Toy company, a porcelain and crystal business, under the name "Maisons Toy et Leveillé réunies". The establishment will be located at 10 rue de la Paix in Paris. Ernest-Baptiste Léveillé died in 1913 in Vaucresson. Dimensions Dimensions 17 cm x 17 cm Height 6 cm Reference: C10 576 All photos are on: www.antiques-delaval.com
