Description

Artist: Jean-Marie Planque 1932-1992

Title:

Lost Village oil on canva of 80cm x 120cm

Dated of 1975 The years 1975 and 1976 will be those of great tilted and singing landscapes.

Heckled and lively as hell, imbued with great poetry, they often recall the art of Paul Klee.

They are those of a period crossed with a certain happiness. Planque grew up in a small country village and this nostalgic reference to the sources, the poetry with which he expresses it, evokes the tenderness of a Chagall for his Belarusian roots.

The painter has found his marks, a style has become his own, production intensifies In Lost Village an assembly of houses crossing the
