Biography:

Charles Gilbert-Martin, (1839 -1905) is a French caricaturist and journalist. On May 19, 1867, he founded Le Philosophe. Editor-in-chief of this satirical magazine, he produced most of the caricatures, alongside the painter Jean-Paul Laurens, who mainly drew scenes of morals. The Philosopher will only have 33 issues because of censorship, which will earn him a sentence with detention

After the Revolution of September 4, 1870, Gilbert-Martin is attached for a few months to the
