Terracotta Sculpture From Sevres "bacchus Child" Signed Malric

1 500 EUR

Signature : Charles-Louis MALRIC (1872 - 1942)

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Terracotta

Height : 51

Description

Charles-Louis MALRIC (1872 - 1942)
Terracotta sculpture from Sèvres.
The young Bacchus crowned with vine leaves, standing on a circular terrace, a bunch of grapes under his arm.
Signed "MALRIC" on the terrace.
Stamp of the Manufacture of "SEVRES", marked E.R circa 1920.
Hight: 51 cm

A biscuit copy preserved in the collections of the Mobilier National in Paris.
Charles Louis Malric: born August 19, 1872 in Bordeaux and died in the same city on January 21, 1942, was the student of Laurent Marqueste (1848-1920), Alexandre Falguière (1831-1900) and Antonin Mercié (1845-1916) at the Paris

Dealer

Galerie des Victoires
Antiques, Clocks, Furnitures
Mobile : 06 10 14 84 97

Sur rendez-vous et salons ou évènements spécialisés
Paris 75002

School of Fine Arts. He then became a professor at the Bordeaux School of Fine Arts.