Description

Magnificent work of sculpture for this miniature cabinet in blond walnut. Opening with four leaves revealing shelves, the interiors are also in walnut. Invisible drawer in the sculpted cove. Louis XIII style and late 18th century, the walnut is of excellent quality and is not pitted. Excellent original condition except for two small accidents at the corners of the upper body, really not very visible, see photo. Rare piece of furniture by its small dimensions and its quality. Delivery possible, do not hesitate to contact us.
