Description

Very beautiful miniature portrait ring from the 18th century in gold.
these portrait rings are quite rare on the market.
the miniature on bone or material in the same spirit usually used at this time for miniatures represents an 18th century gentleman with a wig.
some small lack of color at the base.
the miniature is protected by a crystalline glass.
the ring is in gold with an octagonal shape with a lightly worked diamond ring.
a fine example of miniature portrait rings or sentimental rings from the 18th century.

size:
3.8 cm by 2.2 cm wide.
