Description

This charismatic armchair features a bent beechwood frame, a testament to the craftsmanship of Maison Baumann. The wood, carefully steam-bent, boasts a beautiful finish that highlights its natural grain. The circular seat is crafted using traditional caning. This choice of material lends the armchair lightness, breathability, and an authentic touch. The curved, slender backrest gently follows the natural curve of the spine, offering comfortable support while maintaining a clean, minimalist look. The armrests seamlessly extend the curves of the backrest, creating a harmonious and enveloping silhouette. The legs are slightly curved outwards, giving the armchair enhanced stability and a dynamic appearance. They are connected by a circular wooden band that ensures the overall
