A Good And Strong Wood Model Of A Toad Squatting. Okimono, Sculpture, Japan, Edo, 19th Century

3 500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Solid wood

Length : 10

Height : 5

Description

A good and strong model of a toad squatting in the usual position as if about to leap, the body well carved, with its feet folded beneath and its knobbly skin. the eyes inlaid with brown horn. Nice color with a beautiful patina. Edo, 19th century.

Dealer

Reflets des Arts
Japanese works of Art
Tel : +33 (0)6 21 32 20 24

42 rue de Verneuil
Paris 75007