Description

David English photographer director likes to photograph young girls naked. He will be suspected of pedofilia. Will he be found dead at home, suicide or murder? Officially it was suicide. He was one of the greatest photographers of the end of the 20th century. Employed in an architect's office, he became aware of his artistic talents and, at the age of twenty, moved to Paris, where he worked. as graphic stylist for Peter Knapp of Elle magazine. After making himself known and while still working for Elle, David Hamilton was recruited as artistic director by Queen magazine in London, a position he kept for six months2. However, he understands that he prefers Parisian life and leaves soon. Back in Paris, he became artistic director for the Printemps stores. While he still held this position,
