Description

Room decoration. Carved and polychrome wood. Italian school, 19th century. Architectural decoration in carved and polychrome wood, consisting of a mixed central arch and two trilobed side arches that flank it, with two small steps below. The decoration based on plant scrolls, lozenges, rhombuses, capitals, etc. is inspired by models of the Italian Renaissance, adding variations that are common in historicist interpretations of the 19th century. - Dimensions: 252x16x291 cms
