Description

Pretty copper fish bowl from the end of the 18th century, note that its handle is missing, which is why it is a very pretty decorative object as a planter. It is from the late 18th century and has two pretty decorations on one side, there are fleur-de-lys and on the other side there is a central coat of arms with fish decoration on each side. It is in good general condition with some minor wear and tear over time. Dimensions length 67/68 cm height 11.5/15.5 cm depth 15 cm
