Description

The French School of the seventeenth century painted by Eustache Le Sueur (1617-1655), who directed a cycle of 22 paintings describing St. Bruno's life for the cloister of the Carthusian convent, Paris. Here, the follower of Le Sueur chose when Raymond Diocrès preached before a large audience, among whom is St. Bruno standing a book under his arm. Apocryphal story of this canon, false teacher whose damnation had CONDUCT BEHAVIOR saint Bruno to take orders. Small composition close to the original work
