Description

Rare and beautiful pair of Art Deco period lamps, signed by the famous glassmaker Marius Ernest Sabino (1878 - 1961). These Cascade model lamps are made of silvered bronze for the bases and glass paste for the tulips. They are signed inside the glasses, SABINO 4640. These two lamps are in perfect working order, no chips or defects on the glass paste, the silvering of the feet has faded a little. This emblematic model from the 1920s is a must for any lover of this subline era of Art decoration.
