Description

Sèvres porcelain saucer for the Château de Bizy. The Château de Bizy was a former royal residence, nicknamed "the Versailles of Normandy" for its splendor and historic 18th-century stables. "Sèvre Château de Bizy" refers to a porcelain collection produced by the Sèvres manufactory for the Château de Bizy, a royal residence near Vernon, Normandy, France. This collection includes dinner services, often featuring intricate decoration, gold trim, and the royal initial "LP" for King Louis-Philippe.
