Description

Large Faun with a Wineskin After Sabatino De Angelis (1838-). Large bronze with a nuanced green patina in the antique style, this is the famous faun with a wineskin after Sabatino de Angelis (1838-). A very beautiful, large bronze dating from the first half of the 20th century with a green patina inspired by the green patinas found in archaeological digs, resting on a Belgian granite base. Our bronze is superb in terms of casting quality and a beautiful restoration of the chasing, with particular attention paid to the nuanced patina reminiscent of a patina style used during the Art Deco period. In perfect condition, there is just a small chip of about 1.5 cm on one corner of the black Belgian granite base, which can be repaired by our stonemason. A very beautiful bronze in the spirit of antiquity with a
