comprises 20 figures (including two double figures), accompanied by two candelabra, a jardinière, and three round stemmed cups. As one of the two double figures, the Etruscans occupy a central place in the sculptural composition of the procession. Literature: Irene von Treskow, Die Jugendstilporzellane der KPM, Passau 1971. A rare and highly sought-after piece from the early 20th century, a true masterpiece of Berlin porcelain.
