Description

Large Black Forest fireplace clock, late 19th century, entirely carved by hand in the lime tree. High quality piece representing a majestic deer at the top, accompanied by a lying deer and a small sheep, all surrounded by a rich decoration of oak leaves, branches and logs. The dial is decorated with original enamel cartridges with Roman numerals and finely openwork brass needles. The clock is equipped with its mechanical movement marked G.F. (Gebrüder Faller), Black Forest watchmakers, with its original numbered balance. Movement to be overhauled, complete set and in very good general condition
