Description

Antonio Cortes, signed.

Oil on canvas representing a pastoral scene, with farmers herding cattles on a river bank under a cloudy sky.

Signed A. Cortes in the bottom right corner.

Antonio Cortes (1827-1908) was a Spanish painter at the Royal Court of Madrid. In France for the 1855 Universal Exhibition, he was known as an excellent country life painter. Close to the «Groupe de Lagny», he was the father of the well known painter Edouard Cortes.
