Description

Exquisite carved and painted wooden ceremonial mask. The mask depicts a Hindu deity, with finely made-up eyes and a bindi on the forehead, and is adorned with nose rings, earrings, and an elegant headdress. This mask was likely used during ceremonies or rituals, as well as dance performances. This highly refined mask lends a touch of antiquity and oriental flair to any setting. Indian manufacture, early 20th century.Dimensions: H x W x D 42 x 29 x 17cm
