Napoleon III Period Curved Display Case In Mahogany

780 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Mahogany

Width : 123

Height : 169

Depth : 48

Description

Superb Napoleon III period curved window, made in mahogany, dating from the second half of the XIXth century.This refined piece of furniture captivates with its elegantly flowing silhouette, typical of the Napoleon III style, as well as its rich carved decoration.The front, in a slight curve, opens through two glass doors, allowing the ideal showcasing of the objects on display.The frames are finely molded and adorned with delicately carved rocaille motifs.The upper part is topped by a gradin with richly carved openwork shelves, forming an elegant display case, with volutes, interlacing and central cartouche.The set rests on a curved base embellished with carved decoration on the front, bringing beautiful harmony to the composition. Features Era: Napoleon III (19th century)Wood:

Dealer

Tino antiquites

Mobilier

Mobile : 0763127955

11 rue de bel air à l'huis laurent

Dun les Places 58230

MahoganyStructure: Curved on front and sidesOpening: 2 glass doorsInterior: Storage shelvesDecor: Rocaille carvings, scrolls, central cartoucheUpper section: Openwork gradation with shelvesManufacture: Beautiful workmanship, traditional assembly Dimensions Height: 169 cmWidth: 123 cmDepth: 48 cm Condition Very good overall condition.To note:slight traces of use consistent with agesmall superficial marksglazing in good conditionhealthy, stable structureBeautiful original patina preserved. Highlights Elegant and decorative curved lineVery aesthetic carved gradine (rare and sought-after piece)Ideal for displaying objects, collection or crockeryVery nice visual presence Use Perfect in :collection showcasedining room furnituredecorative piece in a classic or eclectic interior