Description

Carved and polychrome wood sculpture from the 18th century, Louis XV, Regency. A very beautiful work surely representing a young Saint John in a dynamic and lively attitude. Note the diversity and quality of the polychromy giving very beautiful decorative qualities. A rare piece to find in this state of conservation with the presence of its colors and its sculpted parts including the fingers also in a dynamic attitude. Possibility of sending in France and worldwide with secure and insured package with order tracking.
