Silk Tapestry "the Last Supper" Hereke özipek

6 900 EUR

Signature : HEREKE ÖZIPEK

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Silk

Length : 123

Width : 91

Description

Silk tapestry "La Cène" - Hereke Özipek - 10x10 - Turkey -Dimensions: 62 x 104 cm (excluding frame) -Weight: 1.46 kgTechnique: Silk on silk - 100% handmade - Density 10x10 knots/cm²An exceptional textile work, this silk on silk tapestry handmade by the prestigious Özipek manufacture in Hereke (Turkey), represents the famous scene of The Last Supper, inspired by Leonardo da Vinci. The fineness of its weaving (10x10 knots/cm², or more than a million knots per m²) makes it a piece of museum quality, very rare on the market.Every detail - from faces to drapes - is treated with extreme precision. The name of the apostles is written at the bottom of the composition. Signature "Özipek Hereke" woven in the upper border, original label on the back (ref. 0534755) and nameplate on frame.The work

Dealer

MELDEVA ART
Paintings, Sculptures, Drawings and Works of Art
Mobile : 0645891037

Victor Hugo
Mont-de-Marsan 40000

is highlighted in a gold-plated leaf frame, custom-designed, with intact silk fringes and careful assembly.Hereke, the imperial city of the Ottoman Empire, has been known worldwide for its exceptional silk carpets since the 19th century. Özipek models are among the most sought after.Provenance: Private collection - exceptional conditionUnique piece of great artistic and spiritual value, ideal for collectors, sacred art gallery or prestigious decoration.