PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Russia XIX Eme Siecle. Moscow Silver Votive Lamp / Nightlight Circa 1894

1 460 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Length : 62 cm

Description

Chased, cast silver votive lamp/church nightlight with openwork cut-out, hand engraved with burin, sanded. It is decorated on all three sides with floral ornamentation.Russian Empire, Moscow, late 19th century, circa 1894.Silver titled 84 zolotniks.Master silversmith for the mounting: Ivan Vasilievitch Vasiliev, Initials in Cyrillic, specialist in the production of tableware, cult objects and enameled pieces. Chain and suspension are also in silver 84 zolotniks with other goldsmiths' hallmarks.DimensionsHeight of lamp body: 14 cmDiameter: 8.0 cmTotal length with chains: 62 cmLength of chains: 45 cmWeight: 255 grVery good condition / tiny lack on the lower end of one of the side cuffs where the chains attach. No restorations.

Dealer

Lucas L&E
Argenterie ancienne, Arts liturgiques, Arts Russes, Arts de la tables
Mobile : 0615687757

Maisons-Laffitte 78600