Description

Pair of candlesticks that can be converted into candelabras. Bronze. Spanish school, 17th century. A pair of candlesticks with triangular bases, resting on volute feet and adorned with disc-shaped shafts, in the style typical of the 17th-century Spanish school. They include two attachments (each with two lights) that can be attached to each candlestick to form a three-light candelabra, with curved arms decorated with plant and zoomorphic motifs, reminiscent of medieval and Renaissance designs. · Dimensions: 25 x 13 x 26 cm
