Adriano Cecioni - "Bambino col Gallo" - Large Bronze Sculpture at 0.63m high!! 19th century Description: Charming bronze sculpture, dated around 1875, attributed to the Italian sculptor Adriano Cecioni. It depicts a young boy attempting to sell a rooster at a farmers' market, while the animal flutters and tries to escape from his arms. The scene is rendered with great expressiveness: the finely chiseled feathers of the rooster and the animated features of the boy's face testify to Cecioni's remarkable artistic talent. Signed on the front of the base: "Adriano Cecioni", often accompanied by "Firenze". Provenance: A version of this work, titled "Bambino col Gallo", is in the collection of the Galleria d'Arte Moderna in Florence. Period: Second half of the 19th century, circa 1875.
