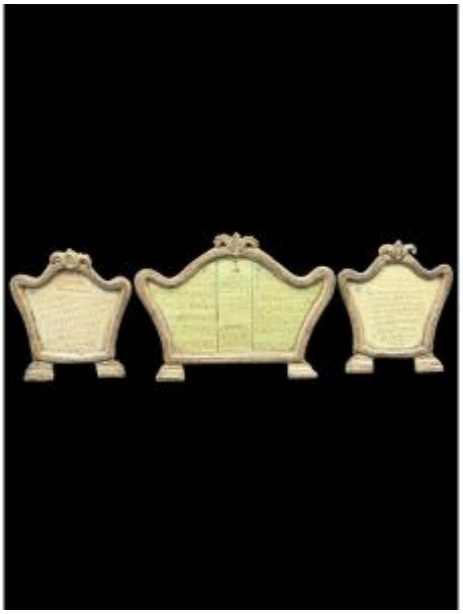
Triptych Of Carved And Silver-plated Wooden Panels - 18th Century



650 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Painted wood

Description

An elegant triptych of altar images made of carved and silver-plated wood, presumably dating from the 18th century.The three frames feature a refined mixed-line profile, embellished with volutes and foliage motifs at the top, in the Baroque and Rococo decorative style.Inside are preserved the liturgical texts in Latin, finely handwritten and embellished with rubricated initials and delicate polychrome borders. The inscriptions include the prayers traditionally recited by the priest during the celebration of Holy Mass according to the Roman Rite.The silver plating features an evocative antique patina, with natural signs of aging that attest to the authenticity and devotional character of the piece.- Period: 18th century (stylistic attribution)- Material: Carved and silver-plated wood,
