Description

The 2 portraits of Ignace de Loyola and François-Xavier, in painted enamel, Limoges.

The two founders of the Compagnie of Jesus with the first Companions in 1539.

The 2 friends: François-Xavier (1506-1552) and Ignatius Loyola (1491-1556), Spanish Basque, both canonized the same day of 1622.

These 2 portraits on slightly curved plates form a pair, of the same dimensions and inseparable.

Limoges, end of 17th century
