Art Deco Vase With Two Handles, Made Of Craquelé Ceramic - Polychrome Floral Design - Circa 193

180 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Ceramic

Height : 32

Description

Art Deco Vase with Two Handles in Crackled Ceramic - Polychrome Floral Design - Circa 1930
An elegant Art Deco-style vase with two handles, made of glazed ceramic, featuring a beautiful geometric silhouette and a polychrome floral design.Baluster-shaped with a spherical body, it features a long, slightly flared cylindrical neck flanked by two slender, openwork side handles.The decoration consists of large cobalt-blue triangular motifs, adorned with stylized flowers in vivid colors--white, yellow, red, and green--outlined in black.The design contrasts harmoniously with an ivory background featuring extensive craquelure in the enamel, which is particularly decorative.The handles are embellished with black lines that accentuate the geometric lines characteristic of the Art Deco

Dealer

Tino antiquites
Mobilier
Mobile : 0763127955

11 rue de bel air à l'huis laurent
Dun les Places 58230

aesthetic.The composition, both understated and colorful, reflects the 1920s-1930s taste for stylized forms and chromatic contrasts.Period: circa 1930, Art Deco period.Material: glazed ceramic with polychrome decoration.Dimensions:Height: 32 cm.Condition: appears to be in good condition, with some crazing in the glaze and signs of age.A beautiful decorative Art Deco piece, ideal for a collection of antique ceramics or a contemporary interior.