Description

An Exquisite Pair of French Gilt-Bronze Candlesticks by Ferdinand Barbedienne, 19th Century.Executed in the elegant Directoire (Neoclassical) style, this pair dates to the second half of the 19th century and beautifully replicates the refined palace models of the late 18th century.Each candlestick features a detachable flat bobeche sitting atop a classical campana-shaped nozzle. The upper cup is masterfully chased with a continuous, highly detailed relief frieze depicting playful putti (cherubs) among clouds.The fluted, tapering hexagonal stem descends gracefully into a flared, stepped octagonal base decorated with a crisp beaded border.Each candlestick is clearly stamped with the authentic cast signature F. BARBEDIENNE along the outer rim of the
