Antique Moroccan "jobbana" (lidded Jar) In Blue-glazed Earthenware - 19th Century

175 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : En l'etat

Material : Ceramic

Diameter : 18 cm

Height : 24 cm

Description

Origin: Morocco, likely FezPeriod: Late 19th - early 20th centuryMaterial: Glazed earthenwareDecoration: Cobalt blue on a cream backgroundTotal height: 24 cmMaximum diameter: 18 cmA beautiful, antique Moroccan jobbana (lidded jar) made of earthenware, consisting of two separate parts: a lower container and a lid with a knob handle. It features striking cobalt blue painted decoration on a cream background, organized into distinct ornamental registers. The upper section displays a stylized geometric and botanical composition, while the lower body is adorned with palmettes, scrolls, arabesques, and dotted motifs. The jobbana was traditionally used for storing and serving dairy products, such as butter and cheese. Condition: An antique piece showing signs of

Dealer

Antiquités Côte Bleue
Antiquaire généraliste
Mobile : 0672947676

18 route bleue
Carry-le-Rouet 13620

use, cracks, and some losses to the glaze. The lid has undergone an old restoration using two copper staples, which are now oxidized. The lower body shows no such staple-based restoration. A decorative piece with a strong visual presence--an interesting find for a collector of antique Moroccan ceramics and Maghreb folk art. For any inquiries, please call +33778337598.Envoyer des commentaires