Description

Some people think that I must be a bit crazy to switch from a grand master painting to an object of popular art, and yet, I often feel a similar emotion ...

The sincerity of the seconds sometimes compensates for the virtuosity of the first and I like to mix them, both at home and in the shops. I remember a huge Belgian merchant who could buy us both a marble baguier and a sculpture of St. Sebastian eroded seventeenth ...

Without comparing us to him, I have great pleasure to offer this embroidery showing a vase Ornate by two butterflies in a park. Different dots are used as well as gold and silver wire.

The silk support 38 X 29 cm has a halo and bites and is raised in a more recent frame 40 X 32 cm. Other photos and many other objects in our shops
