Theodore Gechter Dog Hunting In Bronze

1 600 EUR

Signature : Jean François Théodore Gechter

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Width : 23.5

Height : 19

Depth : 10

Description

Beautiful bronze nineteenth s, parJF Gechter Theodore, renowned sculptor for his animal subjects. Hunting dog stopped before a hare. Beautiful original patina, good condition. Jean-François Theodore Gechter, French sculptor, born in Paris in 1795, died in Paris on 11 December 1844. He was a pupil of François Joseph Bosio and Baron Gros, as Antoine-Louis Barye.Sa first exhibition which took place in 1824, was focused on classical and mythological subjects. From 1830 it will go to smaller sculptures and animal themes, like Barye.

Dealer

Galerie Vaudémont

Ecole de Nancy, Généraliste.

Tel : 06 37 38 76 81

1 rue Saint Laurent

Menil la Tour 54200