Description

A collection of 225 plates on 17th- and 18th-century exterior and interior decoration by architect Jean-François Blondel, published in Paris by the Librairie Générale de l'Architecture et des Arts Décoratifs (Massin, publisher, circa 1913) The volume thus comprises 225 plates (complete) covering absolutely every aspect of interior and exterior decoration. Ironwork, porticos, fireplaces, chandeliers, gates, etc.--it's impossible to list everything. Extremely comprehensive, and very rarely found in good condition and complete, with no missing plates or stains. If you would like to see more photos, please don't hesitate to contact us, as it is difficult to select just 12 representative images from the 225 plates included in this exceptional collection.
