Description

This plaster statue by Charles Alexandre Filleul (1856-1907) comes from an artist's studio. It is a unique piece, a preparatory work--likely for a bronze sculpture--known as a studio plaster.Regarding its condition, note several flaws: the head and fan have been reattached; there are missing sections behind the neck; small rusty pins on the back; and marks and soiling. We note wear on the patina, a chip on the nose, holes in the left elbow, a rusty rod protruding from the right shoulder, and the base has been reinforced with rusty metal rods.The piece as a whole remains presentable, but we are committed to providing honest descriptions.Our numerous photos allow you to appreciate the quality of the item.Regarding the condition, please examine the photos closely.Feel free to zoom in.The photos
