Description

326309 Here is a beautiful sconce for light, wrought iron, very elegant, to be fit to an interior wall by two pegs, wrought iron in its old patina, the base adorned with fine volutes, ending with flowers of cut iron, a cut sheet metal vase, the arrow is an assembly of 3 beautifully curved blades ending with a hanging hook. A ring makes it possible to connect this arrow to the wall by a chain or a cable.

late eighteenth or 1800, quite fine hand working, the blacksmith preferred elegance to massiveness so that you can hold it in arms . Condition is good, but one side of a double flower is missing. Sorry, we cannot export easily.
