Gilt Bronze Arch Clock, Eagle. Directory Period. Enamel Locket

1 900 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Bronze

Width : 21

Height : 40

Depth : 13

Description

Arch clock in chased and gilded bronze. The white enamelled dial is supported by a double arch in gilded bronze and topped with an eagle with outstretched wings.Gilded bronze base resting on four small skate feet.Original movement with revised silk thread escapement. Chimes on the hours and half hours.End of the Louis XVI period, circa 1790.

Dealer

La Tour Camoufle

18th, 19th & 20th century Furniture, paintings, decorative objects, jewels

Tel : 0143063630

1 Avenue Paul Deroulede

Paris 75015