Description

A pair of antique gilded bronze photo frames in the Louis XV style, featuring rich Rocaille decoration.The frames, with their dynamic, openwork design, are adorned with shells, volutes, acanthus foliage, and delicately chiseled floral motifs.The lower section features a particularly intricate asymmetrical composition, extended by graceful feet with scrollwork.Each photo frame retains its thin glass pane, as well as its hinged back stand, allowing it to be displayed on a piece of furniture, a console table, or a mantelpiece.Beautiful antique golden patina, with slight signs of age.A charming decorative pair, representative of the Rocaille style of the late 19th and early 20th centuries.Period: late 19th - early 20th century
