Description

Small miniature of a smiling French officer, handsome in his red jacket uniform: garde Royale, under Louis XVI. The portrait, while not painted by a great miniaturist, captures the character's charm. It is housed in a lovely oval case with a side hinge and brass hook, covered in high-quality, coarse-grained gray shagreen, beneath a domed glass cover. One hook is missing; the glass may have been replaced. French work, late 18th century 5cm x 4cm. Good overall condition, with some wear consistent with age.
