Théophile Vauchelet (1802-1873), Allegory Of The Arts

2 800 EUR

Signature : Théophile Vauchelet (1802-1873)

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oil painting

Width : 35 cm

Height : 25 cm

Description

This work is most likely a design for a ceiling that was never executed or that has since been lost. From left to right: Painting, Music, Poetry, Architecture, Sculpture. Stencil mark on the reverse: Vallé et Bourniche, Rue de l'Arbre Sec N°3, Paris. This mark was used between 1825 and 1841. Vauchelet regularly purchased his canvas from this merchant; his mark appears on several of his works. His studio was located nearby, at 2 rue Monsieur le Prince.

Dealer

Galerie Quattro
Old paintings and art objects.
Mobile : 06 02 30 16 52

51 rue de Gray
Dijon 21000