Christofle Solid Silver, "masaï" Tea Set, 2002-2003, Cathy Specht

4 250 EUR

Signature : Probablement Cathy Specht

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Sterling silver

Description

Christofle -- "Masai" coffee set in solid silver and blackened ash, circa 2002-2003Coffee set consisting of a lidded coffee pot, a creamer, a lidded sugar bowl, and a matching tray in blackened ash wood, adorned with silver handles. The pieces bear the Christofle signature and the STERLING 925 hallmark, indicating 925? silver.The three vessels feature a silhouette that tapers slightly midway up, flared rims, and sides with a delicate vertical hammered finish. These textured surfaces catch the light, while the polished lids and rims accentuate their brilliance. The dark handles and the blackened ash wood tray create a contrast with the luminous silver.The name "Masai" evokes the Maasai people and, presumably, their traditional artifacts. The design of the set is attributed to Cathy Specht, who

Dealer

Ian Panné
Antique silverware and general antiques
Tel : +32 475443619

Essene-kerkplein 5b
Affligem 1790

mentions a collaboration with Christofle on a "Masai" set in 2002-2003. This set can be dated to the same period.Dimensions: coffee pot, height 14.5 cm; creamer and sugar bowl, height 9 cm each. Total weight of the three pieces: 1,340 g, excluding the tray. Condition: in perfect condition.