Description

This cultured pearl necklace subtly alternates black and white pearls, creating a refined and contrasting visual rhythm. Each pearl features a beautiful round shape and a delicate luster, evoking the charm of carefully crafted classic jewelry.It fastens with a white gold clasp adorned with sphere-cut diamonds, whose soft brilliance echoes the natural luster of the pearls. This jewelry detail adds a precious and contemporary touch to a timeless design.Its StoryThis necklace came from a jeweler who had given it to his wife. One day, the cord broke and the pearls scattered throughout their car. They found themselves on all fours in the car, gathering them up one by one with patience and tenderness. Each pearl was then carefully re-strung on a silk thread, preserving the spirit and memory of that unique moment. A
