Description

Pair of oil paintings on panel depicting actors dressed as musketeers. Framed oils, 19th century. Interesting pair of full-length portraits: - An actor dressed as a musketeer is indoors, looking at himself in a mirror to study an expression or pose. Superb rendering of the folds of his costume. Very fresh colors. Elegant posture. Oil signed lower right, decipherable "Chazet"? - An actor dressed as a musketeer is on a stone terrace with a wooded garden in the background. He is studying a flattering pose. Great finesse in the details: buttons, lace, etc. Very fresh colors. Oil signed lower right, decipherable "Chazet"? Inscription on the back: "Gift to Monsieur Bartime, coachman of Monsieur Vaillant, 23 rue de l'arsenal". Original 18th-century style frames in wood and gilt stucco. Frames mounted with
