Description

Watercolour by Georges Massa (1917-2013), Mediterranean garden path, yellow villa, blossoming trees and palm treeWatercolour by Georges Massa (1917-2013), signed lower right "G. Massa": a garden path, in full sunshine, leading to a yellow villa.The sandy path, striped by the shadows of the trees, rises towards the house, of which one sees the cut-out gable and a green shutter. On the left, a tree in pink blossom and large tender green foliage; at the foot of the trees, agaves and bluish shrubs; a palm tree in front of the façade; on the right, trees still bare. The sky is a simple blue wash. A garden of the South of France or North Africa, in spring.The brushwork is quick, the water very present, and the white of the paper, left in reserve between the patches of colour, gives the sheet its light. colours have kept all their freshness.Georges Massa is a watercolourist known in particular for views of Marseille; he also exhibited at the Salon Tunisien from 1949 to 1953.The painted sheet, in very good condition, is laid on a white sheet, under glass held by clips, on a chipboard backing, with its hanging cord. The backing sheet has yellowed slightly. This simple mounting allows it to be hung as it is; a mount and a frame would show it off even better.Dimensions:o Glazed mount: 48 x 60 cm (18.9 x 23.6 in)o Painted sheet: 37.5 x 56 cm (14.8 x 22 in)Safe and secure shipping:o France: EUR 18o European Union: EUR 38o International: EUR 180o Professional packing; each shipment insured for the full value of the piece.o Authenticity guaranteed; a detailed invoice is provided with every acquisition.o Returns accepted within 14 days of receipt.o Our pieces may be viewed by appointment.o Does this item pique your interest or curiosity?
