Description

Important 17th-Century Monastery TableImportant and Exquisite Monastery Table, made of Solid Oak, from the 17th Century.This monastery table rests on a trestle base composed of double turned columns joined by a long central crossbar, with carved feet at the ends. This table measures 3 m in length and can seat 12 to 14 guests. Its thick tabletop features rounded edges, beautiful wood grain, and a lovely, warm, deep patina. This piece of furniture is of fine craftsmanship with understated and elegant lines. This table combines practicality with style; it can serve as a dining table, a reception table, or a large family table. It is both sturdy and practical, yet also visually striking thanks to its beautiful proportions and superb patina. This table will fit equally well in a classic or contemporary interior;
