craftsmanship in this piece.Of particular interest is the original complex locking system, featuring two secret mechanisms for the locks and two secret devices for the keyholes, designed to make access to the safe more secure and difficult.Inside, there is also a security compartment equipped with its own lock, which provides an additional layer of protection.The locks are in working order and have been serviced. The keys are original, a particularly important detail for the completeness and historical value of this specimen.The presence of the original signature, the date 1805, the production number 198, and the complex locking system with original keys makes this safe a specimen of particular historical, antiquarian, and collectible interest.The safe is in excellent overall condition, consistent with its age, with natural signs of aging and use, visible in the photographs.DIMENSIONS:Height: 172 cmWidth: 94 cmDepth: 51 cm - CONTACT -FOR ANY ADDITIONAL INFORMATION, PLEASE DO NOT HESITATE TO CONTACT US!EMAIL furlanantichita@gmail.com
