Description

Rare late 18th-century Louis XVI-style mahogany half-moon folding table. This table rests on five legs with brass-tipped legs and, when opened, reveals several trays (a classic mahogany tray, a tray that transforms the table into a so-called "bouillotte" table, a tray revealing a writing desk, and a removable mirror).A brass band encircles the table's diameter. This rare piece has been fully restored and refinished using the stamp method.DIMENSIONS: When open, the table measures 1.10 m in diameter and 0.82 m in height.Delivery upon request.
