Description

An elegant pair of figurines depicting cherubs, crafted in gilded bronze and dating from the first half of the 19th century.The two figures, depicted in different yet harmoniously complementary poses, feature lively and natural modeling, with particular attention paid to the rendering of the faces, hair, and anatomical details. The gilding, enhanced by a pleasant patina of age, accentuates their forms and lends the sculptures a warm luminosity.Both cherubs rest on elegant square bases of veined red marble, which create a refined chromatic contrast with the gilded bronze.A charming decorative pair, ideal for embellishing a console table, bookshelf, or display surface, and particularly well-suited to classical settings and eclectic interiors.Dimensions: base 10 × 10 cm; height 27 cm.Code: 404Additional information:
